DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 1-18 provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 11-19 of copending Application No. 10/620,575. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they both disclose a substrate, a gate and data line, thin film transistor at a crossing point between the gate and the data line, a main common line on the substrate, an auxiliary common line perpendicular to the main common line and a plurality of pixel electrodes on the substrate.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

3. Claims 19-27 provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 25 and 26 of copending Application No. 09/836,352. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they both disclose a method of forming a gate and data line on the substrate, method of forming thin film transistor at a crossing point between the gate and the data line, method of forming a main common line on the substrate, method of forming an auxiliary common line perpendicular to the main common line and a method of forming plurality of pixel electrodes on the substrate.
